§14–207.

- (a) (1) The period during which a person is a person in emergency management service or person suffering injury or damage is not included in computing any period of limitations applicable to bringing an action by or against:
 - (i) the person in emergency management service;
 - (ii) the person suffering injury or damage; or
 - (iii) an heir, executor, administrator, or assign of:
 - 1. the person in emergency management service; or
 - 2. the person suffering injury or damage.
- (2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection applies whether the cause of action accrues before the person becomes, or during the period that the person is, a person in emergency management service or person suffering injury or damage.
- (b) (1) (i) If a person in emergency management service is reported missing, the person is presumed to continue to be a person in emergency management service until the person is accounted for.
- (ii) If a person suffering injury or damage is reported missing, the person is presumed to continue to be a person suffering injury or damage until the person is accounted for.
- (2) A period of limitations that begins or ends with the death of a person in emergency management service or person suffering injury or damage does not begin or end until the death:
 - (i) is in fact confirmed; or
 - (ii) is found by a court.
